

It Could Work

7

Bright 4

6 FREDERICK:
(Spoken)

Wake the heart, and re - place the brain Str the blood, let it course through the vein

(Sung)

Jolt the nerves with a sharp jab of pain, it could work, it could work, it could work.

4
(14-17)

18

Warm the corpse pump the lungs full of air Cheeks flush, eyes o - pen wide, nos - trils flare

ALL:

Just a hint that the mind is a - ware It could work, it could work, it could work

3

29 FREDERICK:

They

30 FREDERICK:

called my grand - fa - ther cra - zy They said his vi - sion was wrong His

34 35 36 37

peers cried, "daft as a dai - sy" So they cursed him out of spite 'cuz they could-nt see the light But by

38 39 40 41

God, he was right all a - long Spine and legs raise him up - right and straight

42 43 44 45

First slow steps, in an un - stea - dy gait. A thing that's dead I can re - an - i - mate In spite of all the skep-tics and the cri-tics and dys-pep-tics and the sheer daunt-ing mad-ness of his dream It could

46 FREDERICK: 47 48 49

50 51 52 53

work, it could work, it could work _____

5
(54-58)

59 INGA: 60 61

It says right here we should re - verse the poles

62 FREDERICK: 63 IGOR: 64 65

Sense! Sense! And that's the way we'll all a - chieve our goals

#7 - It Could Work