

Jenny Maso is a highly skilled and passionate musical theatre teacher with over two decades of experience in the industry. A graduate of Mannes Conservatory of the Arts and the Connecticut School of Broadcasting, her expertise in musical theatre and classical voice paired with her love for teaching makes her an exceptional mentor for aspiring performers. With a focus on technique and expression, Jenny guides her students through vocal exercises and performance techniques that enhance their skills and confidence on stage. Beyond vocal training, Jenny believes in the power of creative play and personal growth. She fosters a supportive and nurturing environment where students can explore their creativity, develop their acting skills, and build their confidence. Those who have the privilege of learning from her leave her classes not only with improved musical abilities but also with a newfound appreciation for performing and a sense of self-assurance.
